first of all i would like to say awesome blog i had a quick question that i'd like to ask if you don't mind either way i'm proud of you for helping a kid get some food in their belly built by von roll tramways of watertown n.y., the sky ride stood 100 feet tall and stretched from its entrance near the zoo across the japanese tea gardens (then now 2b)